CIRCULAR

SASCA MEMBERS

URGENT

OUR REF: UALL 241020

The urgent application brought against SASCA as the first respondent by applicants

Anneline Lewies, Selveraj Chetty, Nico Coetzee, wherein they seek relief to compel SASCA to host an AGM on 15 December 2020 and that the cost of their action be borne by the respondents.

The first, second and third applicants purport to represent 142 SASCA Members in which they allegedly state are disgruntled. SASCA in their answering affidavit stated for the record that membership verification is an ongoing process.

The five remaining Directors of SASACA, who were cited in their individual capacity, resolved to defend this action and by resolution duly appointed the Law firm, Norton Rose Fulbright South Africa Inc to act on behalf of the first respondent SASCA.

Court proceedings were held in the High Court of South Africa, Gauteng Division, Pretoria on 27 October 2020. The matter referred to as matter No 7 on the Court roll was presented before the court and we thus report to our Members on the outcome by the Honourable Judge.

THE MATTER WAS STRUCK OFF THE ROLL WITH COSTS

SASCA is pleased that the unfortunate and desperate attempt to derail the progress of SASCA and misrepresent the commitment of its Directors did not succeed.

We thus continue to act within the best interest of our Members to build a seamless coaching framework for Coaches in our country.

Continuous learning and Coach development greetings
